THE HOTEL BRANDON

Popular Resort Much Improved
This Season Under New Management.

A NEW BOWLING ALLEY
Guests Are Arriving Rapidly and a Brilliant Season Is Assured—New Arrivals.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BASIC CITY, VA., July 2.—The Hotel Brandon, situated in the very heart of the Blue Ridge mountains, with beautiful scenery, bracing air, and pure lithia water, is indeed an ideal place to spend the heated term. The hotel is run under new management and has been much improved.

The young people can always find amusement. A new bowling alley has been built, there is a tennis court, lather ball, driving and dancing. The older and more sedate guests find endless pleasure in the colonnade, one may sit for hours and enjoy the view of the mountains which stretches for miles, with North mountain as a background. A distance of twenty-five miles. This delightful place is rapidly filling with guests.

ATLANTIC CITY SURF

This Cosmopolitan Summer Resort Puts on Its Gay Attire.

A STYLISH SOLICITOR

Handsome Young Lady Taking Orders for Groceries From a Swell Equipage.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 2.—

The excursion season has opened during the week and the facilities extended by the railroads are bringing many visitors down to this resort. The "City by the Sea" will this season be more attractive than former years, and the lists of guests so far booked in advance for July and August will exceed that of last season. Several large conventions will hold session here next, and among those in which Westerners are concerned, especially those States in the immediate vicinity of Virginia is the "Mystic Shrine" American Fisheries, and National Press Association.

Among the fads of this resort this year is that of a well-dressed young lady and of Virginia birth, going around among the fashionable in an equally handsome equipage with footman and coachman, soliciting orders for groceries for a large concern. She has an air of confidence about her which makes business, and rather to the surprise of customers. She has so far met with success.

Quite a number of the friends of Justice Brown, of the Supreme Court, were surprised a few days ago when he stepped into the Haddon Hall and made the statement that he had just married Mrs.
Josephine Tyler, the wife of late Lieutenant Frederick H. Tyler, of the U. S.

N., and niece of late Admiral Earl English. Mrs. Tyler was originally a Virginian by birth and has for years been a social favorite with Westerners at this resort.

A young woman, giving West Virginia as her native birth and name Lida Pengelly, committed suicide a few days ago at her boarding house on Memorial avenue. She had been arrested some few days ago for acting in a boisterous manner on the boardwalk and remorse drove her to commit the act.

This may be said to be a Point Comfort this season, in way of being the vantage point for young married couples.
There has been quite a number who have made their way here from the immediate and Western States, and it is not long now to find jakes put up on them when the hotels and cottage guests find out the circumstances.

Shinez Morita, a Japanese merchant, during the week took to himself as a bride an American girl—Miss Anna Virginia. The groom lived originally from out West and has many friends in Virginia. The young couple were congratulated by scores of acquaintances.

Among the guests who have so far registered this week at the hotels are the Colman House Mrs. A. H. Christian, a well-known society matron of Richmond.
She has joined her mother, Mrs. Archer, and her sisters, the Misses Archer, at the Wilshire. Among other guests at the same hotel are Mr. and Mrs. John May and Mr. Henry Mc-Kinney from the same State, and who are from Norfolk. At the Dennis, M.
G. Wright, of Richmond, has come for a few weeks rest and recuperation, as he
the Colman House Mrs. A. H. Christian, of Norfolk, has registered. P. J. Scott is at the Roxborough, and Mr. and Mrs.
J. A. Anderson are staying at the Altamont Craig, both hall from Richmond.

Among the entertaining guests at Phil-ladelphia is Miss M. A. Winston, of Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. E. P.
Watts, of Norfolk, registered at the Dunlop where they, with W. M. Smith and Miss J. Smith, of the same city, will remain ten days.

R. G. Morrow and family, who are from Virginia, have registered at the Dennis on their way on a trip to Europe.

WEDDED AT BILTMORE.

Miss Battle Becomes the Bride of a British Officer.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 2.—A wedding of much interest was solemnized at All-Souls' Church, Biltmore, this evening, when Miss Madelon Battle, daughter of Dr. Westry Battle, of this city, was united to Captain Mortimer Hancock, of the Royal British Fusiliers, at present stationed in Bermuda, West India Islands.

The full yested choir of All-Souls' sang the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" as a nuptial procession, and hymns were rendered incidental to the ceremony. Dr.
Battle bestowed the hand of his daughter in marriage. The Rev. R. R. Swope, the pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Richmond Hoxie, of New York; Miss Helen Doyle, Miss Rees, and Miss Rita Rees, of Asheville, who wore gowns of mauve chiffon with large chiffon hats of the same shade, and carried mauve para-sols; Miss Emily Bourne and Master Francis Bourne.

The groom was attended by his best man, Lieutenant G. E. Hawes, of the Royal Fusiliers. The ushers were P. W.
W. Graham, Lieutenant F. Moore, of the Royal Fusiliers; J. B. A. Bennett, Dr.
Lawrence Holmes and S. Westry Battle, Jr.

About a hundred guests were in attendance at the reception at "Sun-crest," which followed the wedding.
